Arriving for an open session

The College office opens at 8:15 a.m., and the Council meeting starts at 8:30 a.m.

When you arrive, please register at reception. You will receive a seating plan, copy of the agenda and a name badge (to be worn at all times while in the College office).

After registering, please wait in the reception area. The visitor liaison will take you into Council Chambers five minutes before the meeting starts.

While Council is in session, please remain seated to minimize disturbances.

About the College

The College of Physicians & Surgeons of Alberta (CPSA) has an important job - we make sure Albertans can depend on their doctors.

We register physicians, investigate and resolve physician-related complaints, provide clinical review, accredit health facilities, guide professional conduct and ethical behavior, and contribute to public policy affecting health care delivery.

About Council

Council is the College's governing body; it is made up of physicians, public members and representatives from Alberta's medical schools who set the broad strategic direction of the College.

Our Mission

Our programs and services support our mission:
Serving the public by guiding the medical profession.
